

Site Information

Site Location: Colma Creek, immediately downstream of Utah Avenue Bridge in South San Francisco

Watershed: Colma Creek

Waterbody: Colma Creek

Jurisdiction: Channel – San Mateo County Flood Control District, adjacent land – City of SSF

Ownership: San Mateo County Flood Control District

Trash Pathways/Sources: Accumulation from storm drain outfalls and local roadways, litter, & illegal dumping

Site Identified by: San Mateo County Flood Control District

Agency Contact: Mark Chow, Principal Civil Engineer, Utilities-Flood Control-Watershed Protection County of San Mateo Department of Public Works

Justification

Information Supporting Selection as a Hot Spot: Photographic evidence (James & Kolb 2007) and waterbody fact sheet (Appendix C of 2008 Proposed Revisions to 303(d) List of Impaired Water Bodies in the San Francisco Bay Notice); Observations of trash by County of San Mateo Department of Public Works staff during Colma Creek Maintenance Monitoring Program quarterly inspections/creek walks and monthly cleanups

Existing Cleanup Efforts: ~Monthly trash cleanups in collaboration with the County Sheriff's Work Program

Assessments: "Virtual" Rapid Trash Assessment as part of the 2008 Proposed Revisions to 303(d) List of Impaired Water Bodies in the San Francisco Bay